Templates Used:

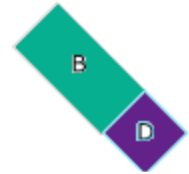

Block Construction:

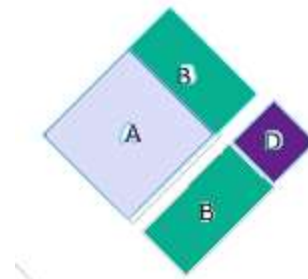

1. Sew a Template A to a Template B (4 times) to create (4) A/B units.

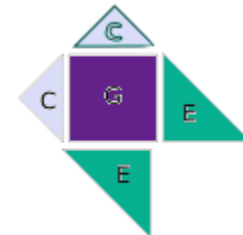

2. Sew a Template B to a Template D (4 times) to create (4) B/D units.

3. Then, sew an A/B unit to a B/D unit as shown (4 times) to create the A/B/B/D unit pictured here...

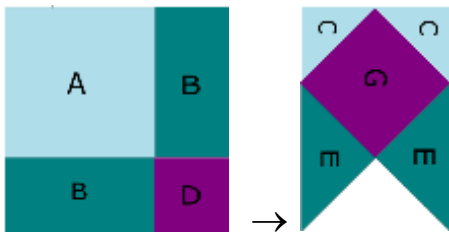

4. Sew a Template C to adjacent sides of Template G (Repeat 4 times).

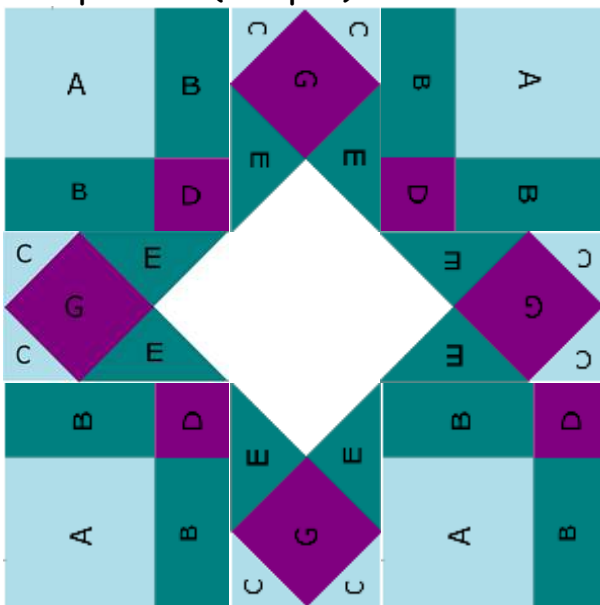

5. Sew a Template E to adjacent sides of C/G units (4 times).

6. Sew a C/G/E unit to the right side of an A/B/B/D unit (4 times; note the direction each unit to be placed next to its adjacent unit). Then sew those units together to form an outer square. There will be an open square in the middle of this completed section where you will sew in the F template.

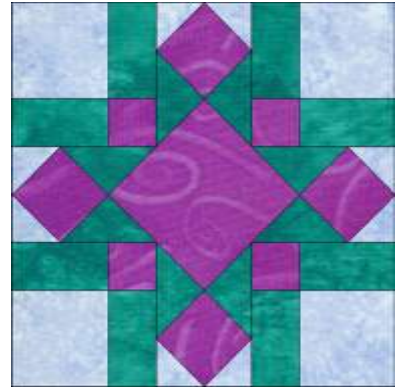

Sew these 2 units together 4 times.

Then sew the 4 units together forming a square as shown below... there will be an opening in the center where you will sew in Template F (Step 7).

7. Inside this unit, sew the F template as the center block, by drawing a dot on the F template $\frac{1}{4}$ " in from each corner edge seam... This dot will mark the spot where your needle must begin and end as you sew the F template square to the inside of the outer units of the block.

Press your Temple Court block.
You are done with Block #9!
