Are you ready to create a great Scrappy Quilt for Fall? Or, maybe you'd like to make this Mystery Quilt as a Christmas gift for someone special! Either way, I look forward to presenting the Free Zoom classes starting on Monday evening, October 3, 2022, and I'm excited to share this new pattern – “Winds of Time” - with each of you during the classes!

With all my Mystery Quilt classes, you can use your scrap stash! For those of you who may not have your scraps cut, organized & ready to use, watch my video (link HERE) which teaches you how!

Due to the wonderful response to this class, I must split up the Zoom classes into two slots each Monday evening in October. I have 100 Zoom slots available PER CLASS, so I've split up the sessions using the Mississippi River as the dividing line for students in the USA. I've also identified (below) which time slot to use if you live in Canada, England, Germany, or Australia!

Please note that I live in the Chicago-land area which is Central Standard Time Zone (USA), or UTC-06:00, so the times given below are Central Standard Times (USA).

If you live EAST of the MISSISSIPPI River, or in Ontario, Canada, jump on the Zoom call at 7PM Central Standard Time.

If you live WEST of the MISSISSIPPI River, or in Alberta or British Columbia, Canada, jump on the Zoom call at 8:15PM Central Standard Time.

If you live in Europe or Australia, you are welcome to jump on the call at 7PM (USA) Central Standard Time, OR, you may prefer to simply watch the tutorial video at a more convenient time for you! I will place each video out on my website after each class takes place.

ALL students will be able to watch each step of the Mystery Quilt Class out on my website AND on my YouTube Channel. So, even if you miss a class or two, no worries! You won't miss a single thing because you will be able to watch the videos over and over at your leisure. The PDF's will also be posted out on my website, as well as on the corresponding YouTube videos.

Supplies for the “Winds of Time” Mystery Quilt:

Dark Fabrics: 1.5 yards total

Medium Fabrics: 1.5 yards total

Light Fabrics: 1-3/8 yards total

Note: Often, students like to wait until the first Zoom Class before they choose their fabrics. I will go over fabric/scrap selection, as well as demonstration of “Block A” of the quilt during the first Zoom Class. You will receive an email with a PDF attachment the weekend prior to the first class which will have SPECIFIC scrap size requirements! Be on the lookout for that email!

The Zoom link is noted below for Each of the Monday night classes.
